Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

Both in sewing and crochet, I am able to follow patterns, and make usable, well-made garments. Likewise, I am able to follow directions, look beyond the obvious, and seek solutions to everyday problems. I serve on the South Austin Senior Activity Center Advisory Board, and on their Travel Committee. I was the first Hispanic from Texas to attend Wellesley College and graduated Cum Laude from St. Edward's University in 1991. My children's careers include Systems Analyst, Robotics Engineering, High School Special Education Math and Science Teacher, Trouble Shooter for the U.S. Army, and Bilingual Tutor. Knowing that my children are so successful in their careers shows the level of integrity and intelligence which I possess. I would be honored and willing to serve on the Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission for the City of Austin.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

When I was growing up in San Antonio, Texas, my father would often tell our family: You can do whatever you set your mind to. My father served in the U.S. Army, and learned to accept people of all races as equals. Here in Austin, Texas, my children attended public school, and made friends easily with people of different races. As a Board Member for the South Austin Senior Activity Center, I interact with people of different ethnic backgrounds. I enjoy meeting people and getting to know how we are different and which similarities we have. I think it is important for us to listen to the concerns of others, and be able to come to an understanding of what is important to the majority. I feel I would be able to bring a wealth of information and experience to The Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

Every day at the South Austin Senior Activity Center, I meet people of different ethnic backgrounds. Likewise, there are people from different walks of life, different income levels, and different family history. Throughout all of Austin, we have a great variety of citizens, who come from many different backgrounds, and live in different circumstances, yet we are all citizens of this great city of Austin. Previous generations of citizens of Austin have donated Zilker Park, Zilker Gardens, the Elizabeth Ney Conservatory, Laguna Gloria Art Museum, and Mayfield Park. These comprise some of the most beautiful and enchanting places in Austin, and I am very grateful for the contributions of previous generations of citizens of Austin. Now, it is time for me to serve on The Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission, so that I may make my contribution to help preserve our city's diversity.

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

Throughout my career, I have served as president, vice-president, or secretary, for different classes and organizations. I earned a Writing Excellence Award at St. Edward's University, and was on their Dean's List while a student there. I was recognized in "Who's Who in America" for my activities, while working and studying for my undergraduate degree. I am willing and able to serve on The Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission, and I urge you to consider my application.
